Sir

The Temple of Basle Devaru in Sanehalli of the Channarayapatna Taluk enjoying the marginally noted Inam lands, was brought to a condition of ruin and decay and the idol therein was mutilated so as to become unfit for purposes of religious worship Although the object of the Inam was thus frustrated, the archikas of the Temple used to enjoy the produce of the lands with impunity The matter was reported by the Patel to the Amildar in 1890 The Amildar thereon issued notice to the inhabitants of the village and also to the Sowcars and the swamy at Sravanabelagola, one of the principal seats of the Jain Religion, asking them to do the needful to the temple in question. The swamy and all the Votaries of the temple, except the archiks declined to do anything in the matter. The archiks as took time to execute the needful in the matter, within a fixed time, but failed to do the same. Subsequently the produce of the land was attached and the sale proceeds thereof were credited to the Muzrai funds, after deducting the quit rent.

2: Again and again, time was being given to the archaks to execute the needful repairs and to place a new idol, and, although 7 years elapsed, they have not put the work in hand. The Amildar, therefore, recommends the resumption of the Inam land by Government. Mr. Knight, the Senior Assistant Commissioner on his

O N.

The Basti at Sanehalli in Chamarajapatna Taluk is in the enjoyment of the marginally noted inam land. There are 2 jack trees & one wood & in the land. The Patels have deposed that they will enjoy the produce of the jack trees and that of the inam land as well and pay Govt Rs 8-8-0 annually the people depose that the Basti is all leaky & that the idol is mutilated people do not even get into the temple. Puja is never performed

Archaks do not come to the village daily except once a year to receive the produce of the Inam land

The Swami however says that he had sent his men to the place who report that the idol is very old & that repairs are necessary.
Swami adds that if Archaks promise to repair the Basti & & re-instal a new idol therein, it may be allowed.

(brothers Devarajaiah & Kavianniah, who perform Puja by turns — Archaks) depose that they will repair the temple to the extent of Rs 200 & that they will establish a new idol therein & pray that they may be allowed to enjoy the inam land.

Amildar reports that he personally saw the place. Repairs have not been executed.
Idol is mutilated & recommends the resumption of the inam lands. Reports further that the produce is sold annually & after deducting the Jodi payable to Govt the balance is credited to the Hoobhead Funds. There is now Rs 16-9-4

The Senior Asst Commr Mr Knight says that he personally visited the Basti. It is in a dilapidated condition Idol is not established there is no likelihood of the Bastion repaired. Recommends therefore the Exemption
